

Who should attend?

Teachers, Professors and Students: Learn techniques that can enhance your ability to critically and effectively listen to the ideas of others and develop skills of democratic citizenship.

Nonprofit Groups: Use a new model to create greater awareness of community needs and wider participation in forming public policy.

Public School Administrators, School Boards and District Staff: Learn how to frame issues and develop methods of dialogue that help foster more constructive relationships between your schools and the communities they serve.

Elected Officials and Public Administrators: Explore the crucial role the public plays in the deliberative process.

Business: Discover ways to connect the work of your organization to the needs of your communities.

Religious Organizations: Use forums to examine community concerns through the lens of your faith.

Environmental and Community Planners:

Engage communities in thoughtful, effective discussion of natural resources management that can become the foundation of wiser and more broadly-supported approaches to conservation and development.

IF YOU CARE ABOUT THE QUALITY OF CITIZEN ENGAGEMENT IN PUBLIC LIFE YOU SHOULD ATTEND!

NATIONAL ISSUES FORUMS A Different Kind of Talk, Another Way to Act

Deliberative Dialogues Project
College of Social Sciences - Public Policy Center
University of Hawai'i
723 Saunders Hall
Honolulu, Hawai'i 96822

Building
Community
through Public Deliberation
May 19 - 20

Deliberative Dialogues Project

College of Social Sciences Public
Policy Center

Building Community through Public Deliberation

A National Issues
Forums Workshop

May 19 - 20
University of Hawai'i

Co-sponsors:

UH Program on Conflict Resolution,
UH Department of Urban and Regional Planning,

At this workshop you will:

Learn how to promote dialogue on "Choosing a Future for Hawai'i"

Learn how to moderate deliberative discussion of public issues

Learn a process for dealing with local and community issues

Discuss strategies for organizing forums

Engage in deliberation of issues with diverse citizens

Network with others who are working toward public involvement

Learn how to apply these skills in your organization, group or community

Space is limited -
Register Early!

When and Where:

University of Hawai'i
Manoa Campus

Friday - May 19

Architecture Building - Room 215
8:30 - 4:00

Saturday - May 20

Architecture Building - Room 215
9:00 am - 4:00 pm

General Information

Cost:

(includes continental breakfast and lunch)

Individuals $90.00/per person

Groups (3 or more) $60.00/per person

Students $40.00/per person
(limited scholarships available)

Cancellations and Refunds: for a full refund, cancellations must be received by May 5, after that date, partial refunds may be designated.

Registration Deadline:

May 1, 2006

For Further Information Contact:
Dolores Foley
email: dolores@hawaii.edu
956-2780

Application Form:

Please complete this application and return it along with your registration fee by May 1, 2006.. Mail or fax. Make checks payable to: RCUH. Payment must be received before we can process the registration information.

Mail to:

Deliberative Dialogues Project -
c/o Department of Urban and Regional Planning
2428 Maile Way - Saunders Hall 107
Honolulu, Hawai'i 96822
Fax: 808 - 956 - 6870

Name:
Title:
Organization:
Address
City	State	Zip
Phone
email
<input type="checkbox"/>	Package A - $90 per person
<input type="checkbox"/>	Package B - $60 per person
<input type="checkbox"/>	Package C - $40 per person
Payment Method
<input type="checkbox"/>	Check payable to RCUH
<input type="checkbox"/>	Purchase Order	PO#
Authorized Signature
Print Name		